Dear Patron,

It's that time of year again! The 2018 New River Valley Fair is celebrating its 65th year and is looking forward to another successful year!

As always, the main objective is to have more participation from the surrounding communities and more youth involvement and growth in all areas of the Fair. There are youth shows and contests that promote agriculture and livestock, while other exhibits such as art, photography, quilting, homemaking, produce, etc. are open to all ages. The New River Valley Fair includes exhibitors from eight counties: Bland, Carroll, Floyd, Giles, Grayson, Pulaski, Montgomery, Wythe, and the City of Radford.

The Fair also provides entertainment such as the demolition derby, horse pull, local talent & bands, lawn mower racing, bull riding & barrel racing, and usually a national acclaimed music artist. The Fair has hosted the likes of Jason Aldean, Kenny Chesney, Blake Shelton, Aaron Tippin, Charlie Daniels Band, comedians Jerry Clower, James Gregory, along with oldies Percy Sledge, and The Platters to name a few. For 2018, Keith Anderson will be performing July 25th, and Wilson Fairchild takes the stage on July 26th. Keep checking nrvfair.com for ticket information in the coming months. These tickets will be sold through the Fair Office as in previous years.

Numerous improvements and renovations have been made to the Fairgrounds. Last year the addition of new benches sponsored by numerous businesses, civic groups, & individuals provided much needed seating around the venue. New River Valley Recreation Inc. sponsors the NRV Holiday Expo (Nov. 3rd) and the New Year's Eve Gala (Dec. 31st). New River Valley Recreation Inc. is a non-profit 501(c)(5) organization whose principal objectives are to (1) to encourage improvement in the production, processing, & marketing of agriculture products that are produced in Southwest Virginia; (2) to promote the importance of agriculture to Virginia's economy; and (3) support the programs of 4-H, FFA & other youth educational groups.

Donations and sponsorships are needed to help make the 2018 New River Valley Fair its best one yet! As an added benefit of any donation or sponsorship, your business will be advertised at www.nrvfair.com. Please see enclosed sponsorship and advertising information. Contact the fair office at 540-674-1548 or fair representative for any questions.

Thank you in advance for your support!
